

People underestimate me.
I am taken for granted.
But, what nobody knows is that I am what holds this community together.

I have won in the past two years
that has brought this city to the top.
Other people fear me when I step on the field.

But, I am no stranger to you.

You know who I am.

You can tease and you can taunt,
but you will never bring me down.
I am the heartbeat of the football games.
I am the beginning and the end of pep rallies.

Without me, the spirit depletes.

I AM BAND!
